

Do you have an infant, toddler, or preschool child?

Join Us!

Get to know other parents, enjoy some great food, and find out simple ways to help your little one be ready to learn.

United Way Born Learning Academies offer you tips, tools and resources to make sure your children are ready to learn when they start school. It's a series of six workshops that help turn everyday activities into early learning moments. Come to the workshops! We provide food and child care during each session.

Details: Workshops will be held one Monday each month at Ruth Ann Monroe Primary School. Dates are October 23, November 20, December 18, January 29, February 26, March 26, and April 23. All workshops begin at 6:00 pm. Food and child care will be available.

Born Learning Academy Registration

Number of Adults: (limit 2/family): _____

Name of Adults: _____

Address: _____

Telephone # _____

Email _____

Name and age of child/ren: _____

Please indicate any special needs including food allergies: _____

For more information, please contact Kim Halsey at 301-766-8683 or via email at halsekim@wcps.k12.md.us.

Born Learning Academies are sponsored by: United Way of Washington County, Judy Center of Washington County, Washington County Head Start, and the Washington County Early Childhood Advisory Council.